

Ashin Sandimar a Buddhist Priest is originally from Burma now known as Myanmar, a Theravada Buddhist country.

Originally a Professor of Computer Science and Mathematics in Burma. He was directed by Spirit to his true path for this lifetime which is to be a guide and teacher to others in helping them obtain a joyful, balanced, peaceful life through meditation and mindfulness.

Practicing traditional teachings since 1980 and teaching 3 day, 10 day and 60 day meditation retreats by the Kanni-MyayZinn Meditation Technique at the Gateway of Light. His programs at the Gateway of Light are for practitioners of all levels of knowledge, cultural backgrounds, and religions.