

Sandamini Devi is the founder and President of ISKCON of Arizona and Govinda's Natural Foods. The three-acre complex hosts a Hindu/Vedic temple, class rooms, imports boutique, living facilities and guest facilities, along with gardens, aviary, koi pond and manicured landscaping. She has managed the center since its conception in 1987.

Sandamini is a direct disciple of the founder of ISKCON, His Grace, AC Bhaktivedanta Swami and has taught bhakti Yoga and opened centers in South Africa, Mauritius, and in the southwest USA from 1977 before settling in Tucson.

She is happy to be part of this center and has participated in several functions at the Gateway of Light and is looking forward to assisting in more outreach and collaborating on different projects together.